17 be reported as provided in G.S. 7A-198.

18 ...

19 (f) The burden in such proceedings shall be upon the petitioner or movant and all 20 findings of fact shall be based on clear, cogent, and convincing evidence. No husband-

27 a termination of the parental rights of a parent exist, the court shall issue an order 28 terminating the parental rights of such parent with respect to the juvenile unless the court 29 shall further determine that the best interests of the juvenile require that the parental 30 rights of the parent not be terminated.

31 (b) Should the court conclude that, irrespective of the existence of one or more 32 circumstances authorizing termination of parental rights, the best interests of the juvenile 33 require that rights should not be terminated, the court shall dismiss the ~~petition~~petition or 34 deny the motion, but only after setting forth the facts and conclusions upon which the 35 dismissal or denial is based.

36 (c) Should the court determine that circumstances authorizing termination of 38 motion, making appropriate findings of fact and conclusions.

39 (d) Counsel for the petitioner or movant shall serve a copy of the termination of 40 parental rights order upon the guardian ad litem for the juvenile, if any, and upon the 12 conditions which led to the removal of the juvenile. Provided, however, 13 that no parental rights shall be terminated for the sole reason that the 14 parents are unable to care for the juvenile on account of their poverty.

15 (3) The juvenile has been placed in the custody of a county department of 16 social services, a licensed child-placing agency, a child-caring

1 juvenile within the meaning of G.S. 7B-101, and that there is a 2 reasonable probability that such incapability will continue for the 3 foreseeable future. Incapability under this subdivision may be the result 4 of substance abuse, mental retardation, mental illness, organic brain 5 syndrome, or any other similar cause or condition.

6 (7) The parent has willfully abandoned the juvenile for at least six 7 consecutive months immediately preceding the filing of the ~~petition.~~

16 (9) The parental rights of the parent with respect to another child of the 17 parent have been terminated involuntarily by a court of competent 18 jurisdiction and the parent lacks the ability or willingness to establish a 19 safe home.

20 (b) The burden in such proceedings shall be upon the petitioner or movant to 21 prove the facts justifying such termination by clear and convincing evidence."

22 Section 12. G.S. 7B-1112 reads as rewritten:

23 "§ 7B-1112. Effects of termination order.

24 An order terminating the parental rights completely and permanently terminates all 25 rights and obligations of the parent to the juvenile and of the juvenile to the parent arising 26 from the parental relationship, except that the juvenile's right of inheritance from the 27 juvenile's parent shall not terminate until a final order of adoption is issued. The parent is 28 not thereafter entitled to notice of proceedings to adopt the juvenile and may not object 29 thereto or otherwise participate therein:

30 (1) If the juvenile had been placed in the custody of or released for adoption 31 by one parent to a county department of social services or licensed 32 child-placing agency and is in the custody of the agency at the time of 33 the filing of the ~~petition,~~ petition or motion, including a petition or 34 motion filed pursuant to G.S. 7B-1103(6), that agency shall, upon entry 35 of the order terminating parental rights, acquire all of the rights for

37 parent whose rights are terminated released the juvenile to that agency 38 pursuant to the provisions of Part 7 of Article 3 of Chapter 48 of the 39 General Statutes, including the right to consent to the adoption of the 40 juvenile.

41 (2) Except as provided in subdivision (1) above, upon entering an order

43 place the juvenile in the custody of the ~~petitioner,~~ petitioner or movant,

1                   or some other suitable person, or in the custody of the department of 2                   social services or licensed child-placing agency, as may appear to be in 3                   the best interests of the juvenile."

4                   Section 13. The Legislative Research Commission shall study issues related to 5 expungement of information from the central registry of abuse, neglect, and dependency 6 cases or from judicial records of juvenile cases that alleged abuse, neglect, or 7 dependency. In particular, this study should consider whether expungement (i) from the 8 central registry should be available when a local department of social services does not 9 substantiate a report of abuse, neglect, or dependency or (ii) from the juvenile court 10 record in a case where alleged abuse, neglect, or dependency is not proven by clear and 11 convincing evidence. The Commission shall make recommendations to the 2001 Session 12 of the General Assembly.
