1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF CHARLOTTE
2 HAWKINS BROWN WHILE OBSERVING WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH.
3

4 Whereas, Women's History Month commemorates and applauds the struggles and 5 accomplishments of women throughout the history of the United States; and

6 Whereas, in 1981, Congress enacted Public Law 97-28, requesting the President to 7 proclaim the week beginning March 7, 1982, as "Women's History Week"; and

8 Whereas, since 1987, Congress has passed legislation designating the month of 9 March as "Women's History Month"; and

10 Whereas, women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made 11 contributions to all facets of American life, including government, business, education, law, 12 science, medicine, and the arts; and

13 Whereas, some of North Carolina's women history makers include: Dolley Madison, 14 the first North Carolina native to become the wife of a United States president; Sarah Malinda 15 Pritchard Blalock, the State's only known female Civil War soldier; Sallie Walker Stockard, the 16 first woman to graduate from the University of North Carolina; Dr. Susan Dimock, the first 17 female member of the North Carolina Medical Society; Elreta Alexander Ralston, the State's 18 first female African-American district court judge; Willa B. Player, the first African-American 19 woman to serve as president of Bennett College; Anna Pauline "Pauli" Murray, the first 20 African-American woman to become an Episcopal priest; Isabella Cannon, the first woman to 21 serve as mayor of a major North Carolina city; Katie Dorsett, the first African-American 22 woman to serve as Secretary of the State's Department of Administration; and Beverly Perdue, 23 the State's first female Lieutenant Governor and Governor; and

24 Whereas, despite the countless contributions women have made and continue to 25 make, their roles in history have consistently been inadequate in the teaching and studying of 26 American history; and

27 Whereas, during Women's History Month, it is important to commemorate the 28 women who have helped expand the opportunities of women, such as Charlotte Hawkins 29 Brown, an educator, author, and civil rights leader; and

30 Whereas, Charlotte Hawkins Brown was born on June 11, 1883, in Henderson, 31 North Carolina, and grew up in Cambridge, Massachusetts, after her family moved there in 32 1888; and

33 Whereas, in 1901, Charlotte Hawkins Brown returned to North Carolina to serve as 34 a teacher at the Bethany Institute, which was run by the American Missionary Association; and

1           Whereas, in 1902, Charlotte Hawkins Brown established the Alice Freeman Palmer
2 Memorial Institute in Sedalia, North Carolina; and

3           Whereas, Charlotte Hawkins Brown transformed the school into a fully accredited,
4 nationally recognized preparatory school that attracted students from across the United States 5 and other countries; and

6           Whereas, Charlotte Hawkins Brown retired in 1952, knowing that she had helped to 7 graduate over 1,000 students during her 50-year tenure as president, and died in 1961; and

8           Whereas, the Palmer Memorial Institute closed in 1971, and today serves as a State 9 historic site to honor the contributions of African-Americans and women; Now, therefore,

10 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

12 Hawkins Brown and expresses its appreciation for her role in providing exceptional educational 13 opportunities for African-American women.

15 resolution for their achievements and contributions to the State of North Carolina.

16           SECTION 3. The House of Representatives encourages the citizens of this State to 18 to our State and nation and to learn more about the significant roles women have had in the 19 creation of our history during Women's History Month.

20           SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon adoption.
