"§ 116-291. Responsibilities.

- (a) The General Assembly notes that the Commission for a Competitive North Carolina developed goals in the following categories:
  - (1) Healthy Children and Families;
  - (2) Quality Education for All;
  - (3) A High Performance Workforce;
  - (4) A Prosperous Economy;
  - (5) A Sustainable Environment;
  - (6) Technology and Infrastructure Development;
  - (7) Safe and Vibrant Communities; and
  - (8) Active Citizenship/Accountable Government.

The Commission for a Competitive North Carolina adopted a report which established major goals and ways to measure progress toward these goals.

- (b) The General Assembly finds that the North Carolina Progress Board developed a report that focused on four of the Commission's recommended topics and issued 16 major targets for 2010. The objectives of the targets are to drive the State toward (i) a more expansive vision of education and environmental protection, (ii) strengthening families, and (iii) bringing more people into the economic mainstream.
  - (c) The General Assembly finds that:
    - (1) The North Carolina economy of the future can provide unparalleled opportunity while maintaining North Carolina's traditional values, if the State pursues the future with clarity of purpose and perseverance;
    - (2) The North Carolina economy is in the midst of a massive transition created by technological changes, global competition, and new production practices; and
    - (3) In order to maintain employment opportunities, increase income levels, reduce poverty, and generate the public revenues necessary to provide public services, North Carolina must increasingly rely on an economy which adds value to its natural and human resources and provides a diverse mix of products.
  - (d) The North Carolina Progress Board shall:
    - (1) Encourage the discussion and understanding of critical global and national social and economic trends that will affect North Carolina in the coming decades;
    - (2) Examine the report of the Commission for a Competitive North Carolina and the 1997 report of the North Carolina Progress Board to the General Assembly;
    - (3) Track the eight issue areas set out in subsection (a) of this section and the objectives set out in subsection (b) of this section and other issues identified by the Progress Board. The Progress Board may, upon vote of the Board, add to those issues identified by its predecessor Commission and Board;
    - (4) Hold public hearings and other methods of public participation, including educational and outreach programs, to secure the views of citizens on priority goals for North Carolina and to disseminate findings and recommendations to policymakers;

- (5) Formulate and submit to North Carolinians a report every five years, beginning 2014, that updates the 20- to 30-year vision for North Carolina and that describes and explains a vision for North Carolina's progress over the next 20 to 30 years;
- (6) Submit a report to the General Assembly prior to its convening the regular session every odd-numbered year, which reports on social and economic trends and issues specific targets and milestones to accomplish its mission;
- (7) Recommend how the targets and milestones can be applied to increase the accountability of government to the people of this State;
- (8) Report periodically to the people of North Carolina on progress toward meeting goals, targets, and milestones;
- (9) Undertake new and ongoing policy research and benchmarking studies; and
- (10) Publish and distribute periodic reports on policies, performance improvement, and best practices for meeting the long-term goals for the State.
- (e) The North Carolina Progress Board may apply for and accept gifts or grants.
- (f) The 2013 General Assembly and 2015 General Assembly shall further define the mission of the North Carolina Progress Board in continuing its work.
- (g) The General Assembly, after adopting the initial set of goals and measures as proposed or amended, may alter the goals and measures.

"§ 116-292. Staff.

- (a) The Chancellor of North Carolina State University shall appoint an Executive Director who shall serve at the pleasure of the Chancellor. The Executive Director shall report to the North Carolina Progress Board and the Chancellor. The Executive Director shall hire or contract with support staff, who shall work at the pleasure of the Executive Director.
- (b) The Office of State Budget and Management and other Executive Branch agencies shall also provide support, information, reports, and other assistance to the North Carolina Progress Board as requested."
  - SECTION 2. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013.
