	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
	AN ACT TO REQUIRE INTERNET WEB SITE PUBLICATION OF LEGAL NOTIC	ES.
	The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
-	SECTION 1. G.S. 1-596 reads as rewritten:
	"§ 1-596. Charges for legal advertising.
)	(a) The publication of all advertising required by law to be made in newspaper	s in this
	State shall be paid for at not to exceed the local commercial rate of the newspapers s	elected.

State shall be paid for at not to exceed the local commercial rate of the newspapers selected. Any public or municipal officer or board created by or existing under the laws of this State that is now or may hereafter be authorized by law to enter into contracts for the publication of legal advertisements is hereby authorized to pay therefor prices not exceeding said rates.

No newspaper in this State shall accept or print any legal advertising until said newspaper shall have first filed with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which it is published a sworn statement of its current commercial rate for the several classes of advertising regularly carried by said publication, and any owner or manager of a newspaper violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

16 (b) When a government notice is required to be published more than once and is paid 17 for by the governmental entity, and the cost of publication is not paid in advance by or allowed 18 to be recouped from private parties, the governmental entity may not be charged for the second 19 and successive insertions of that notice at a rate greater than eighty-five percent (85%) of the 20 original rate."

SECTION 2. G.S. 1-597 reads as rewritten:

22 "§ 1-597. Regulations for newspaper publication of legal notices, advertisements, etc.

23 Whenever a notice or any other paper, document or legal advertisement of any kind (a) 24 or description shall be authorized or required by any of the laws of the State of North Carolina, 25 heretofore or hereafter enacted, or by any order or judgment of any court of this State to be 26 published or advertised in a newspaper, such publication, advertisement or notice shall be of no 27 force and effect unless it shall be published in a newspaper with a general circulation to actual 28 paid subscribers which newspaper at the time of such publication, advertisement or notice, shall 29 have been admitted to the United States mails in the Periodicals class in the county or political 30 subdivision where such publication, advertisement or notice is required to be published, and 31 which shall have been regularly and continuously issued in the county in which the publication, 32 advertisement or notice is authorized or required to be published, at least one day in each 33 calendar week for at least 25 of the 26 consecutive weeks immediately preceding the date of the first publication of such advertisement, publication or notice; provided that in the event that a 1 2 newspaper otherwise meeting the qualifications and having the characteristics prescribed by 3 G.S. 1-597 to 1-599, should fail for a period not exceeding four weeks in any calendar year to 4 publish one or more of its issues such newspaper shall nevertheless be deemed to have 5 complied with the requirements of regularity and continuity of publication prescribed herein. Provided further, that where any city or town is located in two or more adjoining counties, any 6 7 newspaper published in such city or town shall, for the purposes of G.S. 1-597 to 1-599, be 8 deemed to be admitted to the mails, issued and published in all such counties in which such 9 town or city of publication is located, and every publication, advertisement or notice required to 10 be published in any such city or town or in any of the counties where such city or town is 11 located shall be valid if published in a newspaper published, issued and admitted to the mails 12 anywhere within any such city or town, regardless of whether the newspaper's plant or the post 13 office where the newspaper is admitted to the mails is in such county or not, if the newspaper 14 otherwise meets the qualifications and requirements of G.S. 1-597 to 1-599. This provision 15 shall be retroactive to May 1, 1940, and all publications, advertisements and notices published 16 in accordance with this provision since May 1, 1940, are hereby validated.

17 Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 1-599, whenever a notice or any other paper, 18 document or legal advertisement of any kind or description shall be authorized or required by 19 any of the laws of the State of North Carolina, heretofore or hereafter enacted, or by any order 20 or judgment of any court of this State to be published or advertised in a newspaper qualified for 21 legal advertising in a county and there is no newspaper qualified for legal advertising as 22 defined in this section in such county, then it shall be deemed sufficient compliance with such 23 laws, order or judgment by publication of such notice or any other such paper, document or 24 legal advertisement of any kind or description in a newspaper published in an adjoining county 25 or in a county within the same district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 or superior court 26 district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, as the case may be; provided, if the clerk 27 of the superior court finds as a fact that such newspaper otherwise meets the requirements of 28 this section and has a general circulation in such county where no newspaper is published 29 meeting the requirements of this section.

30 (b) Each notice must be placed on the newspaper's Internet Web site, at no additional 31 charge, on the same day that the notice appears in the newspaper. A hyperlink to legal notices 32 shall be provided on the front page of the newspaper's Internet Web site that provides access to 33 the legal notices without charge. If there is a specified size and placement required for a printed 34 legal notice, the size and placement of the notice on the newspaper's Internet Web site should 35 optimize its online visibility in keeping with the print requirement. The newspaper's Internet 36 Web site pages that contain legal notices shall present the legal notices as the dominant subject matter of those pages. The newspaper's Internet Web site shall contain a search function to 37 38 facilitate searching legal notices.

39 (c) If a legal notice is published in the newspaper and cannot be published on the 40 newspaper's Internet Web site for any reason, the newspaper publishing the notice shall place 41 the notice on the statewide Internet Web site established and maintained as an initiative of the 42 North Carolina Press Association as a repository for such notices.

43 (d) Upon request, newspapers that publish notices shall provide electronic mail 44 notification of the new legal notices when they are printed in the newspaper and added to the 45 newspaper's Internet Web site. The electronic mail notification shall be provided without 46 charge, and notification for the electronic mail registry shall be available on the front page of 47 the legal notices section of the newspaper's Internet Web site. 48 (a) Any error in the notice placed on the newspaper's Internet Web site.

48 (e) Any error in the notice placed on the newspaper's Internet Web site or the statewide
49 North Carolina Press Association Internet Web site shall be considered harmless error, and the 50 requirement of proper legal notice shall be deemed to have been met if the governmental entity

51 placing the notice advertisement also places the notice on its own Internet Web site.
